Further Information

This trip is a three night half board break to Llandudno staying at the Merrion Hotel and includes a half day and full day outing and also a theatre ticket to see The Importance of Being Earnest at Theatre Clywdd in Mold. The travel company we are using is Cosgroves Tours.

The plan is that we will leave Fulwood Methodist Church at 10am on the Saturday, arriving in Mold at Midday. You will then be able to go for lunch and the show starts at 2.00pm. Following the show, we will arrive at the Merrion Hotel in Llandudno, in time for the evening meal. Please note the prices are fully inclusive of bed, breakfast and evening meal, but does not include lunch.

On Sunday morning, following breakfast there will be the option of a half day excursion (more details to follow shortly), returning in the afternoon to allow you to enjoy some time in Llandudno for the rest of the afternoon and evening. Evening meal will be provided at the hotel.

Following breakfast on Monday morning, there will be the option to go on a full day excursion (more details to follow shortly). Again, lunch is not provided, but there will be the opportunity to have lunch at local amenities near the venue. We will return back in time for evening meal at the hotel. The evening will remain free for you to choose your own activities.

There is nothing planned for Tuesday morning, so you are free to do as you please until our departure at 2.30pm. We hope to get back to Fulwood Methodist Church by 5.00pm (depending on traffic).
