"Thank you! We are enormously grateful to everyone who contributed to our leaving gift, sent us cards, greetings and took part in the wonderful services on our last Sunday with you. The last five years have been a deeply enriching experience out of which we have forged some great relationships, travelled together through the highs and lows of Church life, and been privileged to share the joys and sorrows of many people's lives. We are now staying with Christine's parents in Gateshead while the builders are working on our new home in Seaton Sluice. We'd be pleased to see anyone who's passing this way - the Church Stewards have our address. Wishing you all every blessing for the future. With our love and prayers, Malcolm & Christine Hickox."
